Summary of the Activity:

ISTI Day ISTI DAY is the official annual meeting devoted to the communication and dissemination of the activities of the institute. The event is primarily targeted at the ISTI community, but anyone interested can join the event. Typically the event includes a speech given by the Director, briefly reporting the status of the institute, the announcement of the ISTI Awards winners, a number of scientific contributions, intended to give visibility to the most recent scientific results, and finally a session of poster talks. The aim of ISTI Day is also to provide a sample of the variety and vitality of the research carried out at ISTI.

The active participation of all the laboratories at each edition is what makes each ISTI DAY a valuable step in the growth path of the institute as a whole.

Objective of the Activity

Presentation of the 2020 research activities performed by the CNR group about the cyber security and data protection

Data Privacy vs Data Security

Keeping sensitive data secure from hackers does not mean they are automatically compliant with data privacy regulations, e.g., the GDPR
